

WOMEN

2024 PITCH DECK

OUR DNA

Omen Wines started out in 2014 with a simple idea; providing American consumers the same benefits that the French take for granted : great wines at a great value.

With that idea in mind French winemaker ALEX REMY ignited the first spark of what was to become Omen wines.

Omen wines offers a lineup of LOW SULFITE, NO ADDED SUGAR, VEGAN FRIENDLY, NO ADDITIVES, 100% CLEAN & TRANSPARENT WINES.

Our wines are hand-crafted from high-quality fruit purchased from “hidden gem” AVA vineyards throughout California and Oregon.

Omen is committed to sustainability; from the vineyards all the way to the labels, printed on 100% recycled materials. Since 2015 all of our wines are bottled using Diam Corks ® guaranteeing closures that are cork taint free.

All our wines are lab tested every year.

OUR WINEMAKER

ALEX REMY, a French-born food scientist by training, is a trailblazing mastermind that makes quality wine for every budget, with an emphasis on sustainability, education and innovation.

– WineEnthusiast 40 under 40.

He is also a leader in label transparency, listing nutrition facts and ingredients on all his products and publishing his lab reports.

“I want to be the Lagunitas of wine,” he says: affordable craft, always under $20.

A true world traveler, Alex has worked in Languedoc-Roussillon, Rhone, New Zealand, Australia, and Tasmania. For years he worked as a wine technical consultant with Vivelys, where he oversaw Maturity Assessments, Sensory Analysis, Yeast Selection, Fermentation, Aging Management, and R&D programs for the likes of Kendall-Jackson, Diageo, Opus One, Mumm Napa, Domaine Chandon, Gallo, Constellation, and Concha Y Toro.

OUR SALES MANAGER

GUILLAUME RAGNET is a French-American wine enthusiast and result oriented sales developer and marketer.

Born in France, Guillaume grew up in California & New York before heading to Montréal and Paris for his studies in business.

Guillaume started out with Carlsberg in France before working for SOPEXA USA, a marketing agency based in NY promoting French and EU wines throughout the US. Guillaume also successfully passed his WSET 3 in 2019.

More recently, he took on positions at Mars Food and Unilever both as Category Manager and as Key Account Manager.

Guillaume happily left both of these jobs to move back to California and bring together his 10+ year expertise in sales, marketing, management and his passion for wine.

(Note : Guillaume is also a big car geek & foodie)

CHILES VALLEY AVA, CALIFORNIA

100% Sage Creek Vineyard, Chiles Valley AVA, Napa, California

Sage Creek Vineyard, located in the Chiles Valley AVA, is a sub appellation of the Napa Valley AVA on the North East of Napa; it is a long, high-elevation valley that enjoys primarily volcanic soils. The valley of Chiles Valley is entirely ringed by mountains, while the elevation plays a cooling role, the valley's architecture can sometime act by trapping the hot air. Overall, the climate is cooler than the valley floor thanks to the cooling breezes making their way from the Pacific Ocean during the night.

VINEYARD SOURCES

100% Sauvignon Blanc
Clarksburg AVA, California, Tres Farms

The Clarksburg wine appellation is situated in the midst of the refreshing waterways of the Sacramento River Delta. Much like Napa and Sonoma, Clarksburg experiences warm days and cool evenings, contributing to its favorable climate for grape cultivation. One notable factor is the Delta Breeze, a local wind originating from the southwest, blowing in from the Sacramento River Delta. This breeze carries cooler and more humid air from the nearby Pacific Ocean. As a result, Clarksburg benefits from these invigorating cool breezes, creating an ideal microclimate specifically suited for the growth of Sauvignon Blanc grapes.

★ HANDCRAFTED BY ALEX REMY

An Augur from the classical Roman world interpreted omens by observing bird signs. This practice was known as "taking the auspices"; which translates to "looking at birds." Depending on whether the birds flew in groups or alone, the direction of flight, and the noises they made, the omens were deemed either favorable or unfavorable.

OUR WINE AWARDS

EDITORS' CHOICE

2019 OMEN ORIGINS ZINFANDEL - This medium-bodied, ultrasmooth wine is rich and relaxed, offering superripe cherries and roasted plums along with tilled earth, cedar and sage accents that lend compelling complexity. Soft tannins and a sense of polish make it easy to drink. — Editor's Choice — J.G.

BEST BUY

2021 OMEN RED BLEND - Ripe boysenberry compote and bittersweet dark chocolate leave a dusty coating on the palate. Licorice, clove, and a hint of tobacco season an oak-inspired finish. Well-made and over-delivers for the price. — Meridith May

BEST BUY

2021 OMEN PINOT NOIR - The wine's aromatics are a powerful, earthy combination of cranberries, crushed marigold flowers and oregano. Pronounced acidity, a crisp texture and lighter-body are the wine's selling points, with bowls of bright red cherry and raspberry flavors, along with traces of coffee and bacon. — Michael Alberty

2020 OMEN CABERNET SAUVIGNON - A blend of fruits, florals and spices fills the nose and palate, reminiscent of blackberry jam, black cherry, dried violets, chocolate, cinnamon, nutmeg, toasted wood and black tea. Plush tannins coat the mouth while balanced acidity adds lift and lightness to the midpalate. It's an overall engaging, full-bodied red wine. — Stacy Briscoe
